

The 48-Hour Draft Protocol

From kickoff to shareable rough draft in two days. Structure, not polish. It will not feel ready, that is the design.

HOURL 0 · SETUP

- ☐ Named reader chosen, for judgment, not a distribution list
- ☐ One question written: what must this draft test? Usually "is this the right shape?"

HOURS 0-48 · THE DRAFT

- ☐ Two sessions maximum, timeboxed
- ☐ Skeleton only: headings, structure, the argument in bullets
- ☐ Wrong-but-complete beats right-but-partial

HOURL 48 · THE SEND

- ☐ Labeled v0.5, for direction not polish
- ☐ The one question attached
- ☐ Sent before it feels ready

AFTER

- ☐ Direction confirmed or corrected, logged
- ☐ Correction banked in the log, the log is why this rule holds
- ☐ Deep build proceeds on a checked foundation
