

The Handoff Contract

Fill it in together, live, at the moment of handoff. The receiver writes line two, the sender cannot know what they habitually omit.

WHAT I'M HANDING YOU

The work, its state, and its purpose, three sentences from the sender.

WHAT YOU NEED THAT I WOULDN'T THINK TO INCLUDE

The receiver's line, from their wiring: the mechanism, the deadline, the why.

WHAT DONE MEANS

Checkable criteria, agreed now, not discovered at delivery.

WHEN WE CHECK BACK

One midpoint touch, dated, before done is due.

SIGNED

Both names. Ten minutes now closes the gap while it is still free.
