

Narrative Arc Planner

Write the Shift beat first, every other beat serves it. Ration the Situation. Pour existing content into the beats, most of the work is reordering and cutting.

SHIFT (WRITE THIS FIRST)

The one thing this deliverable exists to say, in one sentence.

---

SITUATION

Where things stand, in terms the audience already accepts. One beat, not five, the rest goes to the appendix.

---

---

---

STAKES

Why standing still costs something. This beat earns the audience's attention.

---

---

---

SO-WHAT

What the Shift means for the people in the room. Borrow from the Translator.

---

---

---

ASK

The specific decision or action requested. Stories without asks are entertainment.

---

---

SECTION-TO-BEAT MAP

Which existing content pours into which beat, and what gets cut.
