

Vision Extraction Interview Guide

Book it before planning. Ask, then be quiet, the pauses hold the real answers. Read back what you heard, then convert straight to the North Star page.

"What does done look like, a year out?"

Push past deliverables to the changed situation.

"What made this urgent now?"

The trigger reveals the real priority ordering.

"Delivered exactly as specified, what could still make you call this a failure?"

This surfaces the unstated intent. Do not rush it.

"Who else has to believe in this?"

The map of people the vision must survive contact with.

"What are you explicitly not asking for?"

Their exclusions, in their words, on the record.

"Here is what I heard..."

Read back in their words. Corrections captured now are nearly free. This becomes Tool 22, the North Star page.
